WHEN CHRISTIAN CONSCIENCE WAS ON THE LINE, CHUCK HALL VOTED THE WRONG WAY

When Chuck Hall voted for the liberal Democrat's SB 623, and killed the Conservative Republican's HB 3214, he showed a level of bad judgment that disqualified him from representing our conservative district and our values

OKLAHOMA STATE BOARD OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
DISCIPLINARY ORDER

Respondent:
LICENCED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR

Violation: Offering consulting or advice consistent with the counselor's religious beliefs and/or biblical principles.

UNETHICAL
LICENSE AT RISK

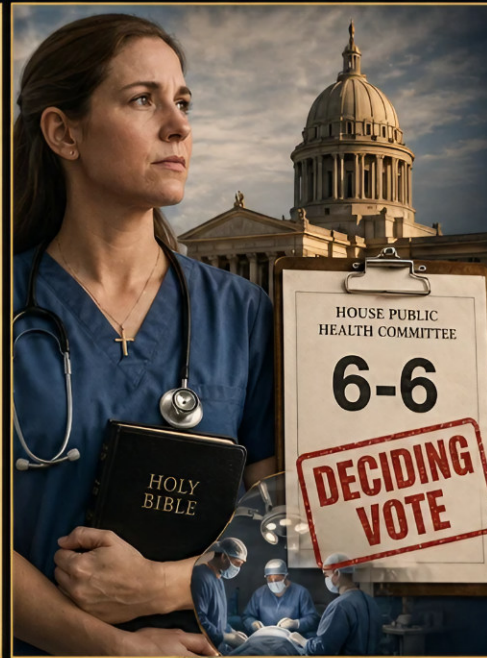

Hall sided with the radicals — not Christian counselors.

SB 623

HALL VOTED FOR IT — TWICE

Silencing Christian Counselors

Hall backed SB 623, a bill by a liberal Democrat from Tulsa, potentially tying Oklahoma licensing to woke standards that could punish Christian counselors for offering biblical advice. When government tells a counselor he cannot speak according to his faith, that is an assault on conscience — and an unconstitutional violation of free speech.

HB 3214

HALL CAST THE DECIDING VOTE TO KILL IT

Blocking Protection for Christian Healthcare Workers

On April 4, 2024, Hall cast the deciding vote that killed HB 3214. The Republican-authored bill would have protected Christian healthcare workers from being forced to participate in procedures that violate their religious beliefs.

When conscience needed a defender, Hall voted the wrong way.
